

De Mores Packing Plant

Coloring Activity

The Marquis de Mores was a young man with big dreams who was willing to spend a large amount of money to make them come true. Cattle, raised by the Marquis and other ranchers, were taken to the Marquis's packing plant for butchering. The meat was sent by trains to stores in eastern United States. When his cattle business failed, the Marquis and his family left the badlands for other adventures.

de Mores cattle brands

From Where History Happens, a coloring book produced in 1999 by the State Historical Society of North Dakota.

March 2004